nonprofit corporation; and DOES 1-50,

Defendants.

Case No.: _____

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

1. Negligence
2. Negligence per se
3. Bailment
4. Breach of Contract
5. Breach of Fiduciary Duty
6. Violation of Wash. Rev. Code
§ 19.255.010-020
7. Violation of Wash. Rev. Code
§ 19.86 et seq.

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff Margie Marie Green (“Plaintiff”), by and through her counsel, brings this Class Action Complaint against Defendant Premera Blue Cross on behalf of herself and all others similarly situated, and alleges, upon personal knowledge as to her own actions and her counsel’s investigations, and upon information and belief as to all other matters, as follows:

PARTIES

1. Defendant Premera Blue Cross (“Defendant”) is a Washington nonprofit corporation with headquarters located at 7001 220th Street SW, Mountlake Terrace,

1 Washington, 98043. Defendant conducts business throughout this District and the United States.

2 2. Plaintiff Margie Green ("Plaintiff") is an individual and currently a resident of 3 Spokane, Washington. Plaintiff is insured through Defendant.

4 3. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names and capacities of the defendants sued as 5 DOES 1-50, and therefore sues these defendants by fictitious names. Plaintiff will seek leave to 6 amend this Complaint when and if the true identities of these DOE defendants are discovered.
7 Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each of the Defendants designated as a
8 DOE is responsible in some manner for the acts and occurrences alleged herein, whether such 9 acts or occurrences were committed intentionally, negligently, recklessly or otherwise, and that 10 each said DOE defendant thereby proximately caused injuries and damages to Plaintiff as herein
11 alleged, and is thus liable for the damages suffered by Plaintiff.

12 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

13 4. This Court has original jurisdiction over this action under the Class Action
14 Fairness Act (CAFA), 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d), because this is a class action in which: (i) the 15 proposed class consists of more than 100 members; (ii) at least some members of the proposed 16 class are citizens of a state different from any defendant; and (iii) the matter in controversy exceeds $5,000,000, exclusive of interest and costs.

17 5. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant because Defendant is 18 authorized to, and does, business in the State of Washington, providing health insurance to 19 citizens of this State such as Plaintiff.

20 6. Venue is proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(a) because 21 Defendant resides in this District and a substantial part of the events that give rise to the claims
22 herein occurred in this District.

23 FACTUAL BACKGROUND

24 7. In what appears to be the largest data breach reported to date involving patient
25 medical information, health insurer Premiera Blue Cross ("Defendant"), through its deficient 26 cybersecurity, exposed medical data and financial information of 11 million of its insureds and

1 customers.

2 8. As a result of Defendant's deficient security, hackers appear to have gained
3 access to claims data, including clinical information, along with banking account numbers,
4 Social Security numbers, birth dates, a variety of personally identifiable information ("PII"), and 5 other data in an attack that began at least as early as May 2014 (the "Data Breach").

6 9. By May 5, 2014, hackers infiltrated Defendant's Information Technology ("IT")
7 system and, for months thereafter, had access to as many as 11 million records of current and 8 former insureds and employees, as well as Blue Cross Blue Shield customers who received
9 medical treatment in Washington or Alaska. The hackers were able to access these individuals'
10 names, dates of birth, email addresses, addresses, telephone numbers, Social Security numbers, 11 member identification numbers, bank account information, claims information including clinical data, and other information.

12 10. Defendant has stated that the Data Breach affected current and former customers
13 of Premera Blue Cross, Premera Blue Cross Blue Shield of Alaska, and affiliates, including
14 Vivacity and Connexion Insurance Solutions, Inc. Several days after the breach, LifeWise
15 Health Plan of Oregon announced that 60,000 of its members were compromised by the Data 16 Breach.

17 11. Defendant further acknowledged that the breach affected members of any Blue
18 Cross Blue Shield plan who had received medical treatment in Washington or Alaska, and that 19 "[i]ndividuals who do business with us and provided us with their email address, personal bank 20 account number or social security number are also affected."

21 <<http://www.premeraupdate.com/>> (statement of Jeffrey Roe) (last visited Mar. 30, 2015).

22 12. On information and belief, Defendant failed properly to segregate medical 23 information from other PII and financial information.

24 13. The federal government explicitly warned Defendant that its cyber security 25 systems were vulnerable before the Data Breach occurred. On April 18, 2014, the Office of 26 Personnel Management delivered the results of an audit it performed on Premera's IT systems.

1 The audit identified ten areas in which Defendant's systems were inadequate and vulnerable to
2 attack. See Mike Baker, Feds Warned Premera About Security Flaws Before Breach, SEATTLE
3 TIMES, Mar. 18, 2015, available at <http://www.seattletimes.com/business/local-business/feds-

5 14. The audit found that Premera was not implementing critical security patches and 6 other software updates and warned: "Failure to promptly install important updates increases the 7 risk that vulnerabilities will not be remediated and sensitive data could be breached." U.S.
8 Office of Personnel Management, Office of the Inspector General, Final Audit Report at 7 (Nov.
9 8, 2014), available at <https://s3.amazonaws.com/s3.documentcloud.org/documents/1688453/
10 opm-audit.pdf> (last visited Mar. 30, 2015).

11 15. Instead of responding to the federal audit, implementing the Inspector General's 12 recommendations, and immediately strengthening its IT security, Defendant allowed itself to 13 remain vulnerable and, predictably, allowed the Data Breach to occur months after the federal 14 audit was completed.

15 16. The hackers appear to have accessed the PII and medical information in 16 unencrypted form, or to have obtained a key allowing the information to be unencrypted. See,
17 e.g., Joseph Goedert, Premera Breach Highlights Need for Encryption, HealthData
18 Management, Mar. 19, 2015, available at

20 Organizations-Dearly-50014-1.html> (last visited Mar. 30, 2015).

21 17. Plaintiff received vaguely worded notices on March 17, 2015, that her PII and 22 medical information had been compromised in the Data Breach.

23 18. Medical records are highly valuable on underground criminal exchanges where 24 stolen data is sold because the information can be used to engage in insurance fraud, and 25 because the PII involved can be used to engage in a variety of other crimes, including financial 26 identity theft, for instance by using one's social security number to open new accounts in a victim's name.

1           19. Defendant did not disclose the Data Breach until March 17, 2015, despite having 2 known about it since at least January 29, 2015, according to its own account of events.

3           20. To date, Premera has not fully and accurately informed those affected of the 4 precise scope of the theft or the nature of the risk of identity theft. While the Plaintiff has been
5 notified, it remains unclear how many other victims the Company has notified. Premera
6 estimated that the notification process would be complete on April 20, 2015.

7           21. It is critical that companies affected by data breaches provide timely, accurate,
8 and complete information to those whose information has been compromised so they can take
9 necessary precautions to protect themselves and their families from further harm. Accordingly,
10 the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act ("HIPAA") requires that Defendant
11 provide notice without unreasonable delay and no later than 60 days after discovery of a breach.
12 See 45 C.F.R. § 164.404. Washington state law similarly requires Defendant to provide notice in the most expedient time possible. See Wash. Rev. Code § 19.255.010.

13           22. As a result of the Data Breach, Plaintiff and members of the Class will have to 14 take a variety of steps to monitor for and safeguard against identity theft and are at a much 15 greater risk of suffering such identity theft, which may well include fraudulent medical care in 16 the victims' names, charges for such medical care, and/or adulteration of the victims' true
17 medical records in possibly dangerous ways. In addition, these victims of the Data Breach are at 18 a heightened risk of potentially devastating financial identity theft. As the Bureau of Justice 19 reports, identity theft causes its victims out-of-pocket monetary losses and costs the nation's 20 economy billions of dollars every year. See U.S. Dept. of Justice, Bureau of Justice Statistics, 21 Victims of Identity Theft, 2012 (Dec. 2013), available at <<http://www.bjs.gov/content/pub/pdf/vit12.pdf>> (last visited Mar. 30, 2015).

22           23. Loss of social security numbers, such as those disclosed through the Data Breach 23 that Defendant failed to prevent, can be especially devastating, as thieves can use such 24 information, in combination with the other PII stolen, to open new accounts in victims' names
25 without their knowledge, and even to obtain fraudulent encumbrances on such victims' property.
26

24. Defendant breached its duty (a) to protect and safeguard its insureds' PII and medical information, and (b) to notify those affected in a timely and complete manner. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of herself and similarly situated insureds whose PII and medical information was compromised in the Data Breach, for compensation for the injuries they have suffered and for injunctive relief to ensure that Defendant takes proper security precautions in the future and gives prompt and full information to all affected people concerning their exposure through the Data Breach.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

25. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of a nationwide class preliminarily defined as:

All current or former insureds of Premiera Blue Cross residing in the United States whose personal and/or medical information was compromised in the data breach disclosed by Premiera Blue Cross on or about March 17, 2015.

(The "Nationwide Class.") Excluded from the Nationwide Class are Defendant; any agent, affiliate, parent, or subsidiary of Defendant; any entity in which Defendant has a controlling interest; any officer or director of Defendant; any successor or assign of Defendant; and any Judge to whom this case is assigned as well as his or her staff and immediate family.

26. Plaintiff also brings this action on behalf of a Washington State Class, preliminarily defined as:

All current or former insureds of Premiera Blue Cross residing in the State of Washington whose personal and/or medical information was compromised in the data breach disclosed by Premiera Blue Cross on or about March 17, 2015.

(The "Washington Class.") Excluded from the Washington Class are Defendant; any agent, affiliate, parent, or subsidiary of Defendant; any entity in which Defendant has a controlling interest; any officer or director of Defendant; any successor or assign of Defendant; and any Judge to whom this case is assigned as well as his or her staff and immediate family.

27. Plaintiff satisfies the numerosity, commonality, typicality, and adequacy prerequisites for suing as a representative party under Rule 23.

1       28.     Numerosity. The proposed Nationwide Class consists of more than 11 million
 2 members—far too many to join in a single action, and although the Washington Class is smaller,
 3 on information and belief the Washington Class consists of thousands of members, at a
 4 minimum, and also satisfies the numerosity requirement.

5       29.     Ascertainability. Class members are readily identifiable from information in 6 Defendant's possession, custody, or control.

7       30.     Typicality. Plaintiff's claims are typical of class members' claims as each arises
 8 from the same Data Breach, the same alleged negligence of and/or statutory violations by 9 Defendant, and the same unreasonable manner of notifying Defendant's insureds regarding the 10 Data Breach.

11       31.     Adequacy. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the all 12 proposed classes. Her interests do not conflict with class members' interests and she has 13 retained counsel experienced in complex class action litigation and medical data privacy to 14 vigorously prosecute this action on behalf of both classes.

15       32.     Commonality. Plaintiff's and class members' claims raise predominantly 16 common factual and legal questions that can be answered for all class members through a single 17 class-wide proceeding. For example, to resolve any class member's claims, it will be necessary 18 to answer the following questions. The answer to each of these questions will necessarily be the 19 same for each class member.

- 20           a.     Whether Defendant unlawfully used, maintained, lost or disclosed Class 21 members' personal, financial, and/or other information;
- 22           b.     Whether Defendant unreasonably delayed in notifying affected
 23 individuals of the Data Breach and whether the belated notice was 24 adequate;
- 25           c.     Whether Defendant failed to implement and maintain reasonable security 26 procedures and practices appropriate to the nature and scope of the information compromised in the Data Breach;

- d. Whether Defendant's conduct was negligent;
- e. Whether Defendant's conduct in connection with the Data Breach and notification thereof violated HIPAA;
- f. Whether Defendant's conduct in connection with the Data Breach and notification thereof violated Washington State law;
- g. Whether Defendant's conduct in connection with the Data Breach and notification thereof breached the terms of any implied and/or express contracts between it and Class members;
- h. Whether Plaintiff and the Class are entitled to damages, civil penalties, punitive damages, and/or injunctive relief.

33. In addition to satisfying the prerequisites of Rule 23(a), Plaintiffs satisfy the requirements for maintaining a class action under Rule 23(b). Common questions of law and fact predominate over any questions affecting only individual members and a class action is superior to individual litigation. The damages available to individual plaintiffs are insufficient to make litigation addressing Defendants' medical privacy practices economically feasible in the absence of the class action procedure.

34. In the alternative, the class certification is appropriate because Defendants have acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the class, thereby making final injunctive relief appropriate with respect to the members of the class as a whole.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligence

(On Behalf of Plaintiff and all Classes)

35. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all other paragraphs alleged herein.

36. Defendant required Plaintiff and class members to submit non-public PII and medical information in order to acquire coverage under a health insurance policy and/or receive medical treatment.

37. Defendant collected and stored this PII and medical information.

38. Defendant assumed a duty of care to use reasonable means to secure and safeguard this PII and medical information, to prevent disclosure of the information, to guard the information from theft, and to detect any attempted or actual breach of its IT systems.

39. Defendant breached its duty of care by failing to secure and safeguard the PII and medical information of Plaintiff and other members of the classes. Defendant negligently maintained systems that it knew were vulnerable to a security breach, despite being made aware of these vulnerabilities any number of ways, including through the federal government's audit of those very systems. Defendant negligently stored PII and medical information in an unencrypted form on a single, highly vulnerable database.

40. Defendant continues to breach this duty of care by failing to share crucial, complete information with Plaintiff and other members of the classes in a timely manner.

41. Plaintiff and the other members of the classes have suffered harm as a result of Defendant's negligence. These victims' loss of control over the PII and medical information exposed subjects each of them to a greatly enhanced risk of identity theft, medical identity theft, credit and bank fraud, Social Security fraud, tax fraud, and myriad other types of fraud and theft. Plaintiff and other members of the proposed classes suffered and continue to suffer further harm by virtue of Defendant's failure to give timely and complete notice to them concerning the Data Breach and the risks they face.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligence per se

(On Behalf of Plaintiff and all Classes)

42. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all other paragraphs alleged herein.

43. Under HIPAA, Defendant had a duty to secure and safeguard the personal information of its customers. Defendant acknowledged this duty to its customers in its Notice of Privacy Practices, and warranted that it would comport with its duties under HIPAA.

44. Defendant violated HIPAA by failing to secure and safeguard the PII and medical information belonging to Plaintiff and other members of the classes; by failing to implement

1 protections against “reasonably anticipated threats,” 45 C.F.R. § 164.306; by failing to encrypt
 2 the PII and medical information, id. § 164.312; and by failing to notify Plaintiff and other
 3 members of the classes in accordance with the requirements set forth at 45 CFR § 164.404.

4 45. Defendant further violated notification requirements under state law, including
 5 Wash. Rev. Code § 19.255.010 and Or. Rev. Stat. § 646A.604, and state law that required
 6 Defendant properly to safeguard Defendant’s PII and medical information, including Wash.
 7 Rev. Code § 19.255.020 and Or. Rev. Stat. § 646A.622.

8 46. Plaintiff and the other members of the classes have suffered harm as a result of 9 Defendant’s negligence per se. These victims’ loss of control over the PII and medical 10 information exposed subjects each of them to a greatly enhanced risk of identity theft, medical
 11 identity theft, credit and bank fraud, Social Security fraud, tax fraud, and myriad other types of 12 fraud and theft. Plaintiff and other members of the proposed classes suffered and continue to
 13 suffer further harm by virtue of Defendant’s failure to give timely and complete notice to them
 14 concerning the Data Breach and the risks they face.

15 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

16 Bailment

17 (On Behalf of Plaintiff and all Classes)

18 47. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all other paragraphs alleged herein.

19 48. Plaintiff and other members of the proposed classes delivered and entrusted their 20 PII and medical information to Defendant for the sole purpose of receiving health insurance
 21 services and/or medical treatment from Defendant.

22 49. By delivering their PII and medical information to Defendant, Plaintiff and other
 23 members of the proposed classes intended and understood that Defendant would adequately
 24 safeguard their PII and medical information against hacking and/or disclosure to unauthorized 25 persons.

26 50. By accepting possession of the PII and medical information belonging to Plaintiff and other members of the proposed classes, Defendant understood that Plaintiff and other

1 members of the proposed classes expected Defendant to safeguard adequately their PII and 2 medical information.

3 51. Defendant accepted possession of the PII and medical information belonging to 4 Plaintiff and other members of the proposed classes for the purpose of providing health
5 insurance and/or medical treatment to them. Thus, a bailment (or deposit) was established for 6 the mutual benefit of the parties.

7 52. During the time of bailment, Defendant owed Plaintiff and other members of the 8 proposed classes a duty to safeguard this information properly and maintain reasonable security
9 procedures and practices to protect such information.

10 53. Defendant breached this duty.

11 54. Plaintiff and the other members of the classes have suffered harm as a result of 12 Defendant's breach of its bailment and of its duty of care. These victims' loss of control over 13 the PII and medical information exposed subjects each of them to a greatly enhanced risk of 14 identity theft, medical identity theft, credit and bank fraud, Social Security fraud, tax fraud, and 15 myriad other types of fraud and theft. Plaintiff and other members of the proposed classes
16 suffered and continue to suffer further harm by virtue of Defendant's failure to give timely and 17 complete notice to them concerning the Data Breach and the risks they face.

18 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

19 Breach of Contract

20 (On Behalf of Plaintiff and all Classes)

21 55. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all other paragraphs alleged herein.

22 56. Defendant entered into written (or, in the alternative implied) contracts with 23 Plaintiffs and the Class in which it agreed to provide health insurance in exchange for periodic 24 payments of premiums.

25 57. Under the terms of this contractual agreement, Defendant was obliged to 26 maintain the security of its insureds' PII and medical information, and to comply with HIPAA.

58. Defendant breached its contractual obligations by failing to secure and safeguard

1 the PII and medical information of Plaintiff and other members of the classes. Defendant
 2 negligently maintained systems that it knew were vulnerable to a security breach, despite being 3 made aware of these vulnerabilities any number of ways, including through the federal 4 government's audit of those very systems. Defendant negligently stored PII and medical 5 information in an unencrypted form on a single, highly vulnerable database.

6 59. Defendant continues to breach its contractual obligations by failing to share
 7 crucial, complete information with Plaintiff and other members of the classes in a timely 8 manner.

9 60. Plaintiff and the other members of the classes have suffered harm as a result of 10 Defendant's breach of contract. These victims' loss of control over the PII and medical 11 information exposed subjects each of them to a greatly enhanced risk of identity theft, medical
 12 identity theft, credit and bank fraud, Social Security fraud, tax fraud, and myriad other types of 13 fraud and theft. Plaintiff and other members of the proposed classes suffered and continue to
 14 suffer further harm by virtue of Defendant's failure to give timely and complete notice to them
 15 concerning the Data Breach and the risks they face.

16 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

17 Breach of Fiduciary Duty

18 (On Behalf of Plaintiff and all Classes)

19 61. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all other paragraphs alleged herein.

20 62. As the health insurance provider to Plaintiff and other members of the proposed
 21 classes, Defendant owed such persons a fiduciary duty, which included the duty to safeguard
 22 this information properly and maintain reasonable security procedures and practices to protect 23 such information, and to keep Plaintiff and other members of the proposed classes fully 24 informed in a timely manner regarding the Data Breach.

25 63. Defendant breached its fiduciary duty by failing to secure and safeguard the PII
 26 and medical information of Plaintiff and other members of the classes. Defendant negligently maintained systems that it knew were vulnerable to a security breach, despite being made aware

1 of these vulnerabilities any number of ways, including through the federal government's audit of 2 those very systems. Defendant negligently stored PII and medical information in an
 3 unencrypted form on a single, highly vulnerable database.

4 64. Defendant continues to breach its fiduciary duty by failing to share crucial,
 5 complete information with Plaintiff and other members of the classes in a timely manner.

6 65. Plaintiff and the other members of the classes have suffered harm as a result of 7 Defendant's breach of fiduciary duty. These victims' loss of control over the PII and medical 8 information exposed subjects each of them to a greatly enhanced risk of identity theft, medical
 9 identity theft, credit and bank fraud, Social Security fraud, tax fraud, and myriad other types of
 10 fraud and theft. Plaintiff and other members of the proposed classes suffered and continue to
 11 suffer further harm by virtue of Defendant's failure to give timely and complete notice to them
 12 concerning the Data Breach and the risks they face.

12 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

13 Violation of Washington's Data Disclosure Law, Wash. Rev. Code § 19.255.010-020 14 (On Behalf of Plaintiff and All Class)

15 66. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all other paragraphs alleged herein.

16 67. Under Wash. Rev. Code § 19.255.010, Defendant is required to disclose "any 17 breach of the security of the data immediately following discovery" of a data breach, "in the 18 most expedient time possible and without unreasonable delay."

19 68. Under Wash. Rev. Code § 19.255.020, Defendant is required to exercise
 20 "reasonable care to guard against unauthorized access to" the PII and medical information
 21 disclosed in the Data Breach.

22 69. Defendant failed to disclose the Data Breach in the most expedient time possible,
 23 and failed to exercise reasonable care to prevent the Data Breach.

24 Plaintiff seeks damages as permitted by law, as well as injunctive relief. As of this 25 filing, Defendant has not provided notice to victims of the Data Breach consistent with the 26 requirements of Washington law, and it should be compelled to do so without delay.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of the Washington Consumer Protection Act, Wash. Rev. Code § 19.86 *et seq.

(On Behalf of Plaintiff and All Class)

70. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all other paragraphs alleged herein.

71. Defendant is a “person” within the meaning of the Washington Consumer Protection Act, Wash. Rev. Code § 19.86.010(1), and conducts “trade” and “commerce” within the meaning § 19.86.010(2).

72. Plaintiff and other members of the Nationwide Class are “persons” within the meaning of § 19.86.010(1).

73. Defendant’s failure to safeguard the PII and medical information disclosed in the Data Breach constitutes an unfair act that offends public policy, including as set forth in HIPAA and the state laws cited supra.

74. Defendant’s failure to promptly and fully notify Plaintiff and other Class members regarding the Data Breach is unfair because these acts or practices offend public policy, including as set forth in HIPAA and the state laws cited supra.

75. Defendant’s failure to safeguard the PII and medical information disclosed in the Data Breach, and its failure to provide timely and complete notice of that Data Breach to the victims, causes substantial injury to Plaintiff and other Class members, is not outweighed by any countervailing benefits to consumers or competitors, and is not reasonably avoidable by consumers.

76. Defendant’s failure to safeguard the PII and medical information disclosed in the Data Breach, and its failure to provide timely and complete notice of that Data Breach to the victims, is unfair because these acts and practices are immoral, unethical, oppressive and/or unscrupulous.

77. Defendant’s unfair acts or practices occurred in its trade or business and have and are capable of injuring a substantial portion of the public. Defendant’s general course of conduct as alleged herein is injurious to the public interest, and the acts complained of herein are ongoing and/or have a substantial likelihood of being repeated.

78. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's unfair acts or practices, Plaintiff and other Class members suffered injury in fact.

79. Plaintiff and other Class members are entitled to an order enjoining the conduct complained of herein and ordering Defendant to take remedial measures to prevent similar data breaches from occurring in the future; actual damages; treble damages pursuant to Wash. Rev. Code § 19.86.090; costs of suit, including reasonable attorney fees; and such further relief as the Court may deem proper.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Unjust Enrichment

(On Behalf of Plaintiff and All Classes)

80. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all other paragraphs alleged herein.

81. If the Court finds Plaintiff's and other Class members' contracts with Defendant for protection of their PII and medical information invalid, non-existent, or otherwise unenforceable, Plaintiff and other Class members may be left without any adequate remedy at law.

82. Plaintiff and other Class members conferred a monetary benefit on Defendant in the form of fees paid for healthcare insurance. Defendant appreciated or had knowledge of the benefits conferred upon it by Plaintiff and other Class members.

83. The fees that Plaintiff and other Class members paid to Defendant were supposed to be used by Defendant, in part, to pay for the costs of reasonable data management and security, including encryption of PII and medical information.

84. Under principles of equity and good conscience, Defendant should not be permitted to retain the fees paid by Plaintiff and other Class members, because Defendant failed to implement reasonable cyber security measures that Plaintiff and other Class members paid for and that are mandated by HIPAA, by the state laws cited above, and by industry standards.

85. As a result of Defendant's conduct, Plaintiff and other Class members suffered

1 damages in the amount of the difference between the price they paid for Defendant's insurance
2 as promised and the actual diminished value of what they received.
